Design:
An Asprey 18ct yellow gold Pink Panther pendant of flat pierced form, depicting the iconic character in a standing pose. The body and whiskers are enhanced with a textured satin finish, contrasting with the polished finish to the limbs, tail, and outer edges. The pendant is suspended from a circular jump ring attached to the top of the head.

Additional Information:
According to information supplied by the owner, this pendant is understood to be one of a limited edition of twelve examples produced by Asprey. No supporting documentation confirming the edition size was available for examination at the time of assessment. The assessed retail replacement value reflects the Asprey manufacture, 18ct gold construction, design significance, condition, and the reported limited-edition production. The reported limited production may contribute to the rarity, desirability, and replacement potential of the piece.
